it's in the nature of human race that every woman and every man is a potential pedophile.

pedophile with the whole meaning of the word.

it's a matter of things/time that we live in a society made the way to not recognize the basic natural 'instincts' anymore.

being pedophile is natural.

who does not love children is sick.

I hope you realize that's not what the topic mean's. It's pretty clear it mean's from a total sexual sense. Even in that sence I do agree, it's natural, but only for some, certainly not for most. Our preference is definately more rare than you would think. Years of observations on different young adult males pretty much confirmed this for me.

well then you used the wrong word. what you mean is pedosexuals, not pedophiles. not saying that pedophiles can't be pedosexuals, of course not.

not everyone is a potential pedosexual. same like not everyone is a potential homosexual, for example.

everyone is a potential pedophile. like women like men, same. but not in the way you mean it beast.

pedophilia is much more and deeper that just being sexually attracted of kids.

*Stop trying to 'one up' each other, thats really pathetic.

Well, in a way, antis, journalists and NGOs are the best advertisers of pedophilia. That is all that hysteria that called my attention, then the rest worked as a chain reaction.

Antis & Co. "sexualize" anything related to kids, calling the attention of everybody about the potential attractiveness of youths, in a way they do pro-CL activism, so thanks buds. (they also forget that most things happen within the family...)

Even, if guys can not (or want not) join pro-CL activism, people doing this hobby could at least undertake some kind of activism by using a tiny fraction of their collection. I use to do that for years, using some LS pics (but NEVER HC) and vids as bullets to target big guys, elite members of the society (USA, Europe, Australia). Many can be reached via email, once they discover the stuff, or they will be indifferent or angry about it, or may be curious and start to search by themselves, and being royal morons, they usually will be catch for collecting CP. When enough elite members of the society will be sentenced, those guys will get tired, and change the laws. The recent position of the powerful NY Judge Weinstein is may be a first indication of a new trend when it comes to deal with CP cases.

Join the crusade, join the loly jihad, spread your lollys in the right places. Of course if your target is a well known gay, sweet stuff with young boys will increase your chance of success, most priests, bishops, etc. are gays; so don't send them pictures of Lesya or Sandra, one calls that strategic adaption to local environment.

Out of the sight that covers me,
Black as the Pit born path to pale,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the full clutch of circumstance
I have not missed nor rebel'd abroad,
Under the blackguarding of chance
And the blackguarding of fate.

Goodbye is always hard to say but nothing lasts forever.

Things are changing in my life and I can't devote alot of time to this hobby. The last several months have been very unsatisfying and downloading new stuff just isn't fun anymore. I have alot of things but cp is not a substitute for real thing.

And seeing all the girls in pictures and vids while knowing I will never have it makes me angry and sad. And the few new series I want won't show up for a long time I think.

And seeing the way people act in this hobby is making me 100% sure I don't want to end up like most of the people obsessed with cp. I always thought of myself as a girl lover 1st and now I realize there are not many girl lovers around anymore and maybe there never were in cp hobby.

I will be moving to a new country becuae there isn't anything for me where I am living now. I don't have a career or family like most do and I am young so there is many things I want to do besides look at CP. I think most of you are older and tied to a place so it is easier.

I won't be gone for good but there will be periods where I can't login for weeks or maybe months but I promise to post whenever I come here. So if I am deleted you will know why and I am not dissapearing with no explanation. I don't have anything private so I will probably never be able to get to SVIP again if I get deleted but thats life.

Anyway. I would never have any real trusting friends in this hobby, most pedos are assholes  but there are a few people I really like hearing from and I think you all know who you are. Dreamboard has changed so much since I became a member and so have I. I always thought this hobby would be something I could do always but it has become one of my low priorities.

Nobody gives this up forever and I don't plan to so I guess this isn't really a goodbye. Anyway I thought you all should know.

Goodbye old friend and may the force be with you!

I'm sad to see you go man. but I know how you feel.

There comes a time when it just get tired beating up to 2 dimensional vids and pics and calling it your sex life.

without the touch of that tight little body, without that aroma mixture of milk and baby shampoo, without hearing her tiny breaths whispering by your ear as she falls asleep naked on your chest...

What I mean to say is, your not alone with those feelings rolleyes.gif

I guess you'll be off to a 3rd world country then? tongue.gif

Hey, whatever it is you plan on doing,

I wish you luck and prosperity in your new adventures, and thank you for all your past contributions in DB.

and even though, the DB laws are justifiably strict, I still hope you don't get deleted.

Take care mate,
stivo.
